

2024-2025 Scholarship Program

Family Therapy Training
Institute of Aurora Family
Service

Family Therapy Training Institute (FTTI) is committed to building a workforce fully equipped to address the mental health needs of our communities.

The global demand for licensed therapists continues to rise; marriage and family therapist employment rose 3.4% in 2021 and is projected to increase 15% in the next 10 years. Specialized education leads to greater job security, higher earning potential, and increased flexibility to set your own work schedule.* Take advantage of this opportunity now to gain the skills and competencies you need to become a marriage and family therapist.

About the Scholarship Program

Scholarships are competitive opportunities based on financial need. Applicants must meet program admission requirements to be eligible. Awardees are notified following review of applications by the Admissions Committee and meet with scholarship liaison on a quarterly basis.

David Hoffman Scholarship ($5,000)

Awarded to an applicant who demonstrates a commitment to serving marginalized families and/or communities including low-income, Hmong, African American, gender identify, sexual orientation, and physical disability. Awardee will engage in activities to expand access to high quality family systemic mental health services for the communities mentioned above.

Insoo Kim Berg Grant ($5,000)

Awarded to an applicant who demonstrates a commitment to advancing solution-focused therapy practice within community health services. Awardee will promote the integration of Solution-Focused Practice within community health services.

This program is highly affordable, and eligible for employer-based tuition reimbursement!

Seats are limited. Application deadline for Fall 2024 enrollment is May 15, 2024.
